Start Living, Growing & Saving

There has never been a better time to get started with Young Living®!

Whether you're a new customer, loyal customer or a distributor, Young Living is always inventing new ways to give you the very best product experience and to show their appreciation.

Their very latest creations are showcased in this newsletter: 10 brand new collections of Young Living's premium products.

New Distributors Save Big on First Order with Start Living Enrollment Kits

Five collections are designed exclusively for a new distributor's very first order—Start Living Enrollment Kits. Each kit features a product line plus sales aids and training materials—everything a new member needs to professionally and confidently share Young Living products and business with others. Every new distributor will find at least one kit that fits their priorities, whether they are wellness or weight loss, interest in Young Living's essential oils, "going green" with Thieves® products or focusing their business around NingXia Red®.

The final touch? Substantial savings on each kit. This is a one-time opportunity to save, which must be taken at enrollment.

Start Living Enrollment Kits Simplify First Order and Product Experience

Teri Williams Secrest, Young Living Diamond, is thrilled with the Start Living Kits. "One key to a successful relationship with a new distributor is early guidance into a significant product experience. I've always walked my customers through their first order and promoted Young Living kits as the best way to get familiar with several products without overwhelming them. With these new Start Living kits, every leader can easily do the same, ensuring a solid start."

Preferred Customers and Distributors Save Money & Earn Points Every Month

The other five product collections are the Essential Rewards Autoship Packs. These kits also feature Young Living's premium product lines and make ordering a breeze.

The Essential Rewards Autoship program is an easy-order process spiced up with exclusive "members only" promotions. Preferred customers and distributors enrolled in this program enjoy these rewards every month:

- Convenient automatic shipping
- Flat shipping rates
- Special conference calls
- Free training CDs
- Earning points towards free product

And now, with the new Autoship Packs, they also receive automatic savings every month! Are you earning points every month for your orders? If not, see page four for instructions on enrolling in the Essential Rewards program.

Leaders! Essential Rewards Autoship is the Key to Growing Your Business

Just as Young Living products fuel your personal health, Essential Rewards Autoship fuels the health and growth of your Young Living business. Industry statistics show that customers on autoship generate more volume over a longer period of time than those who order manually. What that means to you is more consistent business growth every time you enroll someone in the Essential Rewards Autoship Program. So encourage every new person to commit to the health of their body AND their business by enrolling in the Essential Rewards program. continued on page 4
